This course is an introduction to the major personalities and problems in medieval theology focusing on the construction and disintegration of the medieval synthesis.

Prerequisite: RELS T122 or RELS H233.

RELS U188 Sin: History of an Idea 3 crs.

Common Curriculum: Humanities/Arts Pre-modern

This course links together central human questions of personal and social moral responsibility and of relationship with God. Sin will be studied in historical and biblical contexts. Ethical, psychological, sociological, religious, and literary perspectives will be used in reappraisal of this key category of Judeo-Christian tradition.

Prerequisite: RELS T122 or RELS H233.

RELS U196 Law:
Ancient World 3 crs.

Common Curriculum: Humanities/Arts Pre-modern

This course examines the place of law in ancient society, emphasizing Semitic codes of ancient Near East (Bible and Greco-Roman laws) and its relationship to morality. Meeting of Semitic-Judaic and Greco-Roman in the first Christian centuries produced natural law and canon law of later times. Relevant social issues are examined.
Prerequisite: RELS T122 or RELS H233.

RELS U199 Apocalyptic
Literature 3 crs.

Common Curriculum: Humanities/Arts Pre-modern

This course will study Apocalyptic literature within the biblical context and its subsequent use by Western European culture. This course shall discern the original historical, social, and religious context of the literature, then trace its use and misuse through the Middle Ages up to our own modern American setting.
Prerequisite: RELS T122 or RELS H233.

RELS V130 Faith, Science, and Religion 3 crs.

Common Curriculum: Humanities/Arts Modern

This course will critically analyze various ways of knowing: faith, science, and theology (critical analysis of faith). The methods of the physical sciences and the life sciences will be discussed. Topics will include the epic of creation, evolution, and quantum theory. (Also listed as PHYS Z130).
Prerequisite: RELS T122 or RELS H233.

RELS V142 Christian Ethics 3 crs.

Common Curriculum: Humanities/Arts Modern

This course examines significant attempts by various Christian thinkers to relate their religious beliefs and practices to the realizing of moral aspirations and the solving of moral problems.
Prerequisite: RELS T122 or RELS H233.

RELS V144 Social Policy and the Christian 3 crs.

Common Curriculum: Humanities/Arts Modern

This course is a critical analysis of Christian social teachings as they attempt to assess and direct Christian responsibility in formulating social policies and influencing social practices.

Prerequisite: RELS T122 or RELS H233.

RELS V151 Protestant
Christianity 3 crs.

Common Curriculum: Humanities/Arts Modern

This course is an introduction to the central ideas and characteristic ethos of Protestant Christianity as found in the 16th-century reformers and their heirs—Luther, Calvin, the radical reformers, puritanism, liberalism, fundamentalism, etc.

Prerequisite: RELS T122 or RELS H233.

RELS V152 Catholicism 3 crs.

Common Curriculum: Humanities/Arts Modern

This course is a theological study of the principal doctrinal, ethical, and ritual symbols of the Roman Catholic tradition. The course will focus on those elements of the tradition that are distinctive to Catholicism with special emphasis on the meaning of church and the role of the sacraments.

Prerequisite: RELS T122 or RELS H233.

RELS V158 Ignatius Loyola 3 crs.

Common Curriculum: Humanities/Arts Modern

The course will analyze the vision of God, the world and the human person presented by Ignatius Loyola in his Spiritual Exercises. The course will also develop themes of creation, sin and mercy, discipleship, Christian discernment, and the Paschal Mystery, and will study the Ignatian vision as embodied in the 20th-century writer, Teilhard de Chardin.

Prerequisite: RELS T122 or RELS H233.

RELS V160 Discovering Islam 3 crs.

Common Curriculum: Humanities/Arts Modern

This course is an introduction into the central experiences and teachings of Islam. Topics include Muhammad, Qur'an, Sunna, Shi'as, Sunnis, Sufis, relationships to Judaism and Christianity, the problems of modernity, and Islam in North America.

Prerequisite: RELS T122 or RELS H233.

RELS V164 20th-century Religious Thought 3 crs.

Common Curriculum: Humanities/Arts Modern

This course investigates contemporary movements in theology, e.g., fundamentalism, conservatism, liberalism, neo-orthodoxy, liberation theology, death of God theory, futuristic theology, charismatic movement, and post-Vatican II Roman Catholic theology.

Prerequisite: RELS T122 or RELS H233.

RELS V167 Native American Religions 3 crs.

Common Curriculum: Humanities/Arts Modern

This course is a study of the myths, ideas, rituals, and experiences of the tribal religions of North America. Topics include tribal experience, non-literacy and oral tradition, cosmology, shamanism, kinship with natural world, and interactions with Christianity.

Prerequisite: RELS T122 or RELS H233.

RELS V168 Mystery of Suffering 3 crs.

Common Curriculum: Humanities/Arts Modern

Suffering is a common experience of all peoples. For this reason, all religions give it a place of central importance. In one sense, suffering is a cause of religion. What any religion has to say about suffering reveals its anthropology and its point of view about the purpose of existence.

Prerequisite: RELS T122 or RELS H233.

RELS V187 Feminism and Theology 3 crs.

Common Curriculum: Humanities/Arts Modern

Feminist studies in psychology, sociology, and philosophy present challenges to contemporary theology. The course will look at the implications of feminist studies for theological issues such as views of human nature, approaches to the justification of beliefs, and models of Christ.

Prerequisite: RELS T122 or RELS H233.

RELS V191 The Mass of the Roman Rite 3 crs.

Common Curriculum: Humanities/Arts Modern

This course will examine the text of the Roman Mass as revised by the authority of the Vatican II General Council. It will seek to make clear the symbols and actions surrounding this chief form of Catholic worship. The Council of Trent defined the Mass as a sacrifice; the course will explore the meaning of the Mass as a sacrifice. Vatican II focused on the Mass as a sacrificial meal joined to the sacrifice and necessarily completing it. The further implications of the readings used during Mass and of their celebration of liturgical feasts in the course of the year will serve as a counterpoint to the theological discussion of the rite as sacrifice and sacrament.

Prerequisite: RELS T122 or RELS H233.

RELS V198 Psychology and Religion 3 crs.

Common Curriculum: Humanities/Arts Modern

This course is a study of major modern psychological interpretations of religion. The writings of significant authors will be presented, e.g., Freud, James, and Jung, and their views evaluated. Critiques of religion will be studied. Research papers will be given in class.

Prerequisite: RELS T122 or RELS H233.

City College

RELS C100 Old Testament Literature 3 crs.

This course is a survey of the Old Testament—The Pentateuch, emphasizing the Exodus as the foundation-story for Old Testament religion; the historical books, emphasizing the Babylonian exile in relation to pre-exilic Yahwism and post-exilic Judaism; and the “writings,” examples of the diversity to be found in Hebraic religion.

RELS C101 New Testament Literature 3 crs.

This course is a survey of the New Testament—Jesus as an enigmatic figure who taught in parables and upset traditional expectations of a Messiah; the four gospels, showing how the writers’ theological standpoints were shaped by their respective historical contexts; and Paul’s interpretation of the “good news” as justification by grace through faith.

RELS C119 Foundation of Religious Studies 3 crs.

This introductory course explores the interplay of religion and culture. Emphasis is placed upon Judeo-Christian traditions’ (Catholicism in particular) capacity to locate life experience within the context of ultimate questions. Religious implications of major currents of contemporary thought are explored.

RELS C152 Catholicism 3 crs.

This course will explore the beliefs, symbols, ethics, and practices of the Catholic church. The course will focus on those elements of the tradition that are distinctive to Catholicism, with special emphasis on the mission and meaning of church and the role of the sacraments.

RELS C221 The Church Today 3 crs.

This course is a shared reflection on the students’ own experience of local church, leading to a better understanding of what a local church could be and a personal expression of what the local church should be.

RELS C246 Religion and Faith Today 3 crs.

This course will explore the relationship between organized religion and personal faith and assess the relevance of religion and faith in our individual and collective experience.

RELS C260 Religion and Film 3 crs.

The purpose of this course is to communicate religious doctrine (Christian) and values through the use of film. The course also attempts to communicate methods of critique to recognize ways in which lifestyles and value systems all communicate through the media.

RELS C261 Faith and Film 3 crs.

This course on fundamental theology continues to study the impact the electronic media have on our value system, morals, and religion. The course will deal more with the positive side through films, slides, tapes, discussion, and lectures.

RELS C263 Christian Woman in Tradition 3 crs.

This course is a study of major biblical paradigms into which woman is cast—faithful bride; faithless wife; harlot; fruitful wife; virgin; devoted daughter; sorrowing mother; troublesome sister; honored mother; abandoned widow; and how the fairly universal image as chattel was affected by the advent of Judaism and more strikingly of Christianity.

RELS C264 Feminism and Christianity 3 crs.

This course examines root teachings of the Bible and aspects of ancient matriarchal culture in order to gain a more holistic understanding of Christianity. It will synthesize both the intellectual and the experiential in order to transcend patriarchal bias in the transmission of the teachings of Jesus.

RELS C266 Women's Religious Experience 3 crs.

We will explore some of the forms and expressions women have given to their experience of the holy. Participants will listen to this experience and relate it to more traditional interpretations found in the major religions of the world.

RELS C270 Current Moral Problems 3 crs.

This course is an inquiry into contemporary moral dilemmas including problem areas of human sexuality, euthanasia, nuclear warfare, capital punishment, genetic engineering, the occult, racism, and poverty.

RELS C368 Christianity and the Environment 3 crs.

This course will involve participants in an investigation of the developing ecological agenda from the perspective of Christian faith. Our inquiry will draw upon theologians whose work helps us to perceive the revelatory effects and power of creation.

RELS C370 Religion and Society 3 crs.

The forces of social change are driven by diverse and interrelated influences. This course will try to identify these influences in contemporary U.S. culture and examine them in light of the socio-political implications of the Judeo-Christian tradition.

RELS C430 Church and Sacraments 3 crs.

The Church in the 20th century is described as "the People of God"—a community called to mission and ministry, a sacrament for the world. The sacraments are explored as celebrations of the Church's life and of the world's promise of salvation.

RELS C460 Peoples and Their Religions 3 crs.

This course investigates some of the more accessible and influential religions of the world in order to enrich our understanding of those beliefs and, in the process, enhance our understanding of our own tradition.

SPECIAL STUDIES

Arts and Sciences

SPST A100 Career Exploration 2 crs.

The objective of this course is to stimulate an on-going self-assessment on the part of the individual, thereby enhancing his/her ability to make viable vocational choices and to encourage the student to investigate various occupations which emerge as possibilities after the self-assessment phase.

SPST A105 Protocols of Learning 1 cr.

Designed to promote higher-level learning skills, this course demonstrates techniques with application to the student's classwork. The course addresses taking notes, preparing for exams, and comprehension in reading. Individual conferences are provided to address the student's specific need.

SPST A205 Peer Adviser Development 2 crs.

This course is designed to prepare students to serve as peer advisers in the peer adviser program and orientation. Peer advisers serve as orientation leaders and workshop presenters in the Office of New Student Orientation and Student Health Service.

SPST A215 Dynamics of Leadership 2 crs.

This course is designed to examine the dynamics of leadership in organizations and to develop leader competencies in student organizations. Organizational behaviors and personal style assessment is the focus in fostering and developing effective groups.

SPST A225 Practicum in Higher Education 3 crs.

The practicum provides a means to test career objectives by exposure to the work environment in the Office of Student Affairs and the demands the tentative career makes on the person. Performance contracts will be negotiated.

SPST A320 Resident Assistant Preparation 2 crs.

Required for all students selected to be resident assistants, the curriculum is designed to impart knowledge/skills through structured class experiences. Emphasis is placed on interpersonal relationships, communications, and community development.

Required for all first-time resident assistants.

SPST A499 Independent Study arr.
Permission of the dean of the College of Arts and Sciences.

SPEECH

Arts and Sciences

SPCH A100 Fundamentals of Speech 3 crs.

This course is a study of the factors governing good speech content and delivery; an introduction to speech behavior in human interaction. Open to all students.

SPCH A200 Voice and Speech 3 crs.

This course looks at fundamentals of vocal production and effective speaking.

SPCH A204 Argumentation and Debate 3 crs.

This course explores inductive and deductive reasoning as bases of argumentative speaking. Evaluation of evidence is considered as well. Students will prepare and present classroom debates.

SPCH A210 Oral Interpretation of Literature 3 crs.

This course is a study of techniques of the oral presentation of poetry and drama; and offers practice in delivery of selected types of literature; exercises for the development of tone, melody, timing, and emphasis are given. Open to all students.

SPCH A495 Special Project arr.

This project focuses on the creative or projective efforts of one or more students. A special project is distinguished from a research project in its lack of the historical or experimental method and perspective characteristics of research.

SPCH A496 Seminar/Workshop arr.

A seminar is a supervised group of students sharing the results of their research on a common topic. A workshop is a supervised group of students participating in a common effort.

SPCH A497 Internship/Practicum arr.

An internship is supervised practical experience. A practicum is supervised practical application of previously studied theory.

SPCH A498 Research Project arr.

This project focuses on empirical or historical investigation, culminating in a written report.

SPCH A499 Independent Study arr.

VISUAL ARTS

Arts and Sciences

VISA A102 Foundations I 6 crs.

This course is an introduction to the basic visual vocabulary consisting of line, shape, value, space, texture, and color through a series of increasingly complex two-dimensional projects. Development of drawing skills is emphasized within this context. Open to all students.

Required of all art majors and minors.

VISA A103 Foundations II 6 crs.

This course is an investigation of the basic visual vocabulary in a three-dimensional context using readily available materials and basic processes to develop conceptual ideas. The drawing component of this course continues to develop the student's abilities in visual observation. Open to all students.

Required of all art majors and minors.

Prerequisite: VISA A102.

VISA A115 Painting for Non-art Students 3 crs.

This course gives students with no art background the opportunity to draw and paint under guidance.

VISA A200 Drawing I 3 crs.

This course concentrates on visual thinking by deconstructing preconceptions through an intense focus on still life, architecture, and landscape. Eleven fully realized works on paper using compressed charcoal and pastel are resultant. Participation in end of class critique is essential, as well as gallery day papers. Course is open to non-art majors.

Required of all art majors and minors.

VISA A201 Drawing II 3 crs.

This course emphasizes perceptual drawing directly from the live model. Two outside projects incorporating the human figure are to be completed for class critique. The projects are conceptual in approach and a high level of artistic competence in their realization is expected. Gallery visits are frequent and papers required.

Prerequisite: VISA A200.

VISA A210 Survey of World Art I 3 crs.

This course is designed to introduce students to art and visual culture of all periods. It seeks to emphasize significant patterns of representation and thinking which recur throughout history. Texts which reveal particular approaches to these materials will be examined in parallel with visual examples in order to introduce students to a variety of ways of working with words and images.

Required of all art majors.

VISA A211 Survey of World Art II 3 crs.

This course will continue the process of developing visual and critical literacy outlined above. Whilst visual materials will continue to be drawn from all periods, you should note that the patterns of critical thinking and visual practice addressed in this section will be conceptually challenging.

Required of all art majors.

Prerequisite: VISA A210.

VISA A230 Painting Studio I 3 crs.

Painting I introduces the student to the complexities of oil paint in problems that address the issues of both representation and abstraction. Relevant art historical antecedents are always examined.

VISA A231 Painting Studio II 3 crs.

This course continues the exploration of the possibilities of painting begun in Painting I, with further investigation of technical and conceptual approaches to the medium. Reference to historical and contemporary movements in art is an essential part of course content, as is the awareness of the relatedness of these movements to a larger cultural context. At least one written project is included in the course syllabus.

Prerequisite: VISA A230.

VISA A232 Painting Studio III 3 crs.

This course is an advanced painting studio course with emphasis on both traditional and contemporary approaches and results in a final presentation and research paper.

Prerequisite: VISA A231.

VISA A240 Beginning
Printmaking 3 crs.

This course is an introduction to the fine art of printmaking. The student explores the various techniques such as etching, lithography, and relief printing. Course open to non-art majors.

Required of all art majors.

VISA A241 Printmaking
(Intaglio) 3 crs.

This course is an introduction to the fine art of intaglio printing. The student will explore etching, engraving, drypoint, digital/photomechanical processes as well as multi-plate color techniques and the monotype. Note: completion of this course will fulfill the VISA major or minor printmaking requirement.

VISA A242 Printmaking
(Serigraphy) 3 crs.

This course is an introduction to the fine art of serigraphy or screenprinting. The student will explore the various stencil-making techniques including direct lacquer film and digital/photomechanical processes.

VISA A243 Advanced
Printmaking 3 crs.

This course is continued development of images in any of the traditional or applied printmaking and/or bookmaking techniques.

Prerequisite: any one of VISA A240, A241, A242, A243, A244, A245, or A246.

VISA A244 Printmaking:
Lithography 3 crs.

This course is an introduction to the fine art of lithography. The student will explore the traditional method of hand drawn stone lithography, plate lithography, and digital photolithography. Note: completion of this course will fulfill the VISA major or minor printmaking requirement.

VISA A245 Bookbinding—
Book/Arts 3 crs.

This course explores case binding, oriental binding, and folio design as a potential format using text, images, or a combination. Emphasis will be placed on creating the book as visual object, not by imposed decoration, but through structure. Open to all students.

VISA A246 Printmaking
(Relief) 3 crs.

This course is an introduction to the fine art of relief printmaking. The student will explore the woodcut, linocut, and relief etching techniques. Letterpress printing using hand set type, artist papers, and presentation of works on paper will also be examined. Course open to non-art majors. This course satisfies the VISA printmaking requirement.

VISA A249 Fine Art of Photography 3 crs.

This course is a technical investigation of contemporary fine art approaches to the photography process with exploration of materials, equipment, and printmaking processes necessary for development of black and white photographs. An introduction is made to the techniques of fine black and white photography. Students are shown how to produce a portfolio of fine black and white prints.

VISA A250 Handbuilt
Ceramic Form 3 crs.

This course explores design with clay emphasizing traditional and contemporary handbuilding techniques. Students design, glaze, and fire own work. Class open to non-art majors.

VISA A251 Wheel-Thrown
Ceramics 3 crs.

This course explores design with clay emphasizing utilitarian pottery. Students design, glaze, and fire own work. Class open to non-art majors.

VISA A252 Advanced
Ceramic Form I 3 crs.

This course offers continued exploration of ceramic form and ceramic art history with an introduction to glaze mixing and calculation. Prerequisite: VISA A250 or VISA A251.

VISA A253 Advanced
Ceramic Form II 3 crs.

This course offers continued exploration of ceramic form, glaze research, kiln firing, practice, and theory. Prerequisite: VISA A250 or A251 or A252.

VISA A260 Advanced
Drawing I 3 crs.

Taught by rotating faculty, this course is for the student who wishes to pursue drawing as an end in itself—not attendant upon other disciplines. In seminar-type instruction, the student and teacher discuss aims and implement ideas and techniques. It is also for the student who wants to develop the drawing relationship to other disciplines such as painting, sculpture, printmaking, or ceramics. Graphic majors can also develop individual ideas with visual and conceptual assistance from the teacher.

VISA A261 Advanced
Drawing II 3 crs.

This course continues the aims pursued in VISA A260. Prerequisite: VISA A260.

VISA A271 Graphic
Communication
Survey 3 crs.

This course will cover the history of graphic design beginning with the first pictorial images in caves to the electronic computer based imaging of today. The course will focus on the reproducibility and intertextuality of word and image with an emphasis on the evolution of design concept, typography, and printing technology.

VISA A275 Graphic Design I 3 crs.

This studio course will focus on the application of the principles of graphic design and its functions in developing the creative use of two-dimensional space. Students will learn the basics of visual literacy. Required of all graphic design majors and minors. Offered in fall only.

Co-requisite for majors in graphic design: VISA A378 or permission of instructor.

VISA A300 Modern Art 3 crs.

This course will consider various models for understanding “modernity” and the Avant-Garde. We will examine in detail the histories, contexts, and meanings of European and American Avant-Garde art practices between the French Revolution of 1789 and the International Revolution of May 1968.

Required of all art majors.

VISA A320 Sculpture Studio I 3 crs.

This course examines sculpture both technically and through the formal language of 3-D. Students embrace critical standards which directly relate to the practice of sculpture. The student simultaneously must become familiar with models of knowledge offered by one’s own personal experience. Open to non-art majors.

VISA A321 Sculpture Studio II 3 crs.

This course is a continuation of the elements of Sculpture Studio I plus expansion of technical information and further exploration of each individual’s ability to manipulate the language of 3-D.

Prerequisite: VISA A320.

VISA A340 Metal Sculpture I 3 crs.

This course is an exploration of all sculptural processes dealing with metal (welding, braising, casting, steel fabrication, etc.) and other materials combined with metals. Students will formulate questions and follow their possibilities regardless of where they lead.

Prerequisite: VISA A320.

VISA A341 Metal Sculpture II 3 crs.

Students will explore their established ideas and philosophies founded in Metal Sculpture I. Students will consider theoretical, methodological, and perceptual issues as they affect the sculptural images produced in the studio.

Prerequisite: VISA A340.

VISA A349 Fine Art of Photography II 3 crs.

This course will cover the use of filters, flash, different lenses, and toning. We will address contemporary issues in photography and learn to produce exhibition quality black and white prints. Topics will range from Stieglitz’s equivalents to David Hockney’s photo collages.

Prerequisite: VISA A249 or permission of instructor.

VISA A350 Readings in Aesthetics and Art Criticism 3 crs.

This course focuses on close readings of philosophical, critical, and theoretical texts from Plato to Derrida. These texts each offer different ways of seeing and valuing visual (or literary) culture. After careful discussion of the implications of each text, students are invited to practice these theories by deploying these “reading strategies” or frameworks across objects other than those which they were originally written around. It is hoped that by becoming familiar with existing critical tools, students will become more confident in finding language in which to discuss work of the present, including their own. Open to all students.

VISA A373 Computer-based Imaging 3 crs.

This course will allow art majors with basic preparation to familiarize themselves with the expanding processes and possibilities of computer-based imaging. This course will not only develop important skills in an increasingly computer-based world, but also allow even greater opportunities for the studio major to apply these techniques into their individual forms of expression.

Prerequisite: VISA A102 or permission of instructor.

VISA A374 Advanced Computer-based Imaging 3 crs.
Advanced fine arts applications using computer imaging processes, hardware, and programs. Focus is on studio art uses of 3-D modeling, animation, digital photography, natural media emulation, and introductory concepts of digital video editing and multimedia authoring.
Prerequisite: VISA A373 or permission of instructor.

VISA A375 Graphic Design II 3 crs.
This course encourages the development of basic skills of graphic design by applying design principles, theory, and methods including media exploration for creating imagery. Offered in spring only.
Required of all graphic design majors and minors.
Prerequisite: VISA A270 or CMMN A260.
Co-requisite for graphic design majors: VISA A379 or permission of instructor.

VISA A376 Graphic Design III 3 crs.
This is an advanced course in graphic design emphasizing the designing process—research, organization, production, and presentation. Offered in fall only.
Required of all graphic design majors and minors.
Prerequisite: VISA A370.

VISA A377 Graphic Design IV 3 crs.
This is an advanced course in graphic design techniques emphasizing the use of the computer as a tool. The professional practice of graphic design is explored. Offered in spring only.
Required of all graphic design majors and minors.
Prerequisite: VISA A370.

VISA A378 Typography I 3 crs.
This course examines the letter form in its application to graphic design projects and covers typographic history, nomenclature, kerning, and original typeface design.
Co-requisite for graphic design majors: VISA A275 or permission of instructor.

VISA A379 Typography II 3 crs.
This course examines text in formal applications in graphic design and covers use of the grid, typographic specifications (alignment, leading, typesetting), text as texture, and composition and layout.
Co-requisite: VISA A375 or permission of instructor.

VISA A400 Art of the Child 3 crs.
This course is an examination of the form, content, and significance in children's art from age two to adolescence. Course open to non-art majors.

VISA A420 Renaissance Art 3 crs.
This course covers the arts in France, the Low Countries, and Germany, with emphasis on painting and the graphic arts, from the late 13th century to the middle of the 16th century and a survey of the major architects and their principal achievements in theory and design during the period 1400 – 1600.

VISA A425 Baroque Art 3 crs.
This course studies the architecture, painting, and sculpture in Rome, Bologna, Naples, and Northern Europe from 1550 to 1700.

VISA A445 Sculpture Studio III 3 crs.
Students form a closer relationship with sculpture materials and processes for shaping, joining, and transforming their sculpture. Emphasis is placed on critical thinking about the creative process through the use of particular materials as each student researches a personal visual vocabulary.
Prerequisites: VISA A321, A350.

VISA A449 Fine Art of Color Photography 3 crs.

This course is an introduction to the technical and formal aesthetics of fine art color photography via transparencies, also known as slides. There will be no darkroom work required as the slides will be commercially processed. Students will learn how to use their camera's manual functions, how to properly expose color transparency film, and how to produce their own creative visions. A 35mm camera with a 50mm lens with manual shutter speed and aperture controls is required.

Prerequisite: VISA A349 or permission of instructor.

VISA A450 Senior Show I 3 crs.

This course must be taken in the sequence of fall semester, spring semester. Students begin to think about their life as artists and to search for ways to speak as artists, to question themselves closely and be responsive to the questions of others. Students develop a strategy or vocabulary to become intimate with their chosen materials and processes for shaping and transforming their ideas. Offered in the fall semester.

Prerequisite: VISA A350.

VISA A451 Senior Show II 3 crs.

This course is a continuation of VISA A450, culminating in an exhibition and written thesis presented at the end of the semester. Offered in the spring only.

Prerequisite: VISA A450.

VISA A457 Arts Career Intern I 3 crs.

This course will offer electing, senior-level VISA majors experiential knowledge in selecting areas of the arts industry. An individual, faculty-supervised, intern program will be designed for each student through which skills will be developed that might afford the student a more qualified approach to post-graduation opportunities. Grade: pass/fail.

VISA A458 Arts Career Intern II 3 crs.

This course will offer electing, senior-level VISA majors the second phase of the program initiated in VISA A457. A joint art project will be executed. A final experience-descriptive paper is required. Grade: pass/fail.

VISA A474 Electronic Multimedia 3 crs.

This course covers fine arts applications in electronic multimedia. Multimedial authoring (object based programming of electronic media components), 3-D modeling and animation, broadcast quality digital video editing and compositing, sound arts, art on the internet, and the extension of previously acquired skills in electronic image manipulation and composition.

VISA A475 Graphic Design V 3 crs.

Students will work on a design and advertising campaign for a client of their own invention. They will develop a campaign from initial sketches through more comprehensive layout. Students will be expected to design all that is necessary to deliver the particular message to the client. Offered in the fall only.

Prerequisites: VISA A370, A371.

VISA A476 Graphic Design VI 3 crs.

This course is designed to develop the student's special talents and provide a comprehensive understanding of procedures in design, illustration, production, print, and TV graphics. The experience will be professional with instruction and design standards a faculty responsibility. Offered in the spring only.

Prerequisite: VISA A462.

VISA A495 Special Project 3 crs.

This project focuses on the creative or productive efforts of one or more students. A special project is distinguished from a research project in its lack of the historical or experimental method and perspective characteristics of research.

VISA A496 Seminar/Workshop 3 crs.
A seminar is a supervised group of students sharing the results of their research on a common topic. A workshop is a supervised group of students participating in a common effort.

VISA A497 Internship/
Practicum 3 crs.
An internship is supervised practical experience. A practicum is supervised practical application of previously studied theory.

VISA A498 Research Project 3 crs.
This project focuses on empirical or historical investigation, culminating in a written report.

VISA A499 Independent Study 3 crs.

VISA H233 Honors Art 3 crs.
Common Curriculum: University Honors Program
This course is a study of the major European and American art movements of the 20th century with an emphasis on theory and art criticism. Included are artists' demonstrations, gallery visits, and studio work.

VISA U130 Medieval Art 3 crs.
Common Curriculum: Humanities/Arts Pre-modern
This course studies the emergence and development of the art styles of age of faith, when foundations of Christian art were laid. From the reign of Constantine to the beginning of the Renaissance, we follow the spread of Christianity and see how arts expressed spirit and values of the time and contributed to the fabric of our culture.

VISA U132 Arts and Ideas I 3 crs.
Common Curriculum: Humanities/Arts Pre-modern
This course deals with the evolution of cultures and the function of art in the development of human consciousness. It highlights periods of greatest cultural achievement, from prehistory to the end of the Middle Ages.

VISA U136 Images of Women in Arts 3 crs.
Common Curriculum: Humanities/Arts Pre-modern

This course will present the role and image of women in visual arts as portrayed by men and women, from antiquity to the present, in the light of sociopolitical, cultural, and moral conditions and values. The work of women artists will be central.

VISA U143 The Art and History of the Book 3 crs.
Common Curriculum: Humanities/Arts Pre-modern

This course is an overview of the history of the book as a cataloging device for information and as a work of art. With an emphasis on binding, illustration and graphic design, the course will examine the structural and aesthetic elements of the book balanced against the larger background of cultural history.

VISA V133 Arts and Ideas II 3 crs.
Common Curriculum: Humanities/Arts Modern
This course deals with the evolution of cultures and the function of art in the development of human consciousness. It highlights periods of greatest cultural achievement, from the Renaissance to the Modern Era.

VISA V138 Romantic Vision 3 crs.
Common Curriculum: Humanities/Arts Modern
This course places emphasis on the aesthetic developed in Romantic period as a response to demystifying forces in science, culture, religion, and psychology. The vision developed by Wordsworth and others in poetry and art altered the history of aesthetics and continues to affect today's art.

VISA V140 Modernism in Art and Literature 3 crs.

*Common Curriculum: Humanities/Arts
Modern*

Modernism is a term that has come to include not only the styles of late 19th- and early 20th-century art and literature but also the philosophic and moral issues represented in these art forms. The course will examine major 20th-century works of art and literature and the issues of modern life raised by these works. (Also listed as ENGL V176.)

VISA V141 Art in Contemporary Culture 3 crs.

*Common Curriculum: Humanities/Arts
Modern*

This course aims to offer hands-on experience of the contemporary art scene together with critical skills necessary for the interpretation and engagement with visual culture of the present-including film, television, fashion, advertising, and digital media. Off-campus visits to galleries and other venues will provide opportunities to discuss what we see around us. We will consider how this material is presented and circulated, how it is written about, and how we can relate developments in visual practice to work of the past and to other forms of cultural representation of the present.

VISA V142 Architecture and Society 3 crs.

*Common Curriculum: Humanities/Arts
Modern*

This course will examine the development of modern and contemporary architecture in its cultural context. Theories and practices will be compared. The impact of the built environment on the individual, as well as the impact of the individual upon the built environment, will be considered central to an assessment of the successes and failures of architectural intervention.
